Statistics and selections is a function of Wise intended to support the business process of your library organization. Key data from the system can be leveraged directly within this menu to create meaningful reports.

Use statistics and selections

No image available

Find information about how to use reports in the Wise staff client.

- Reports terminology
- Types of reports
- View reports

Statistical data

No image available

Reports generated in the Statistical data section provide insight into circulation and customer statistics in the Wise staff client.

- Analyses
- Ratio

Selections

No image available

Selections allows users to create and store reporting selections.

- Access to data
Strategy for generating reports
Selections screen
Create a new selection
Manage selections
Manage sets
Edit titles as a set

• Selections by set type and selection source

No image available

Learn about the set types available for creating reports in Wise.

- Customer selections
- Items selections
- Titles selections
- Orders selections
- Order lines selections
- Periodicals selections
- Holds selections
- Financial items selections
- Logfile selections
- Messages selections
- Transactions selections
- Performances selections
- Activities selections

• schoolWise and Mediatheek Wise statistics

No image available

Not for use in US libraries.