Why are patron email addresses appearing on the holds list?

Last updated: Wed, 08 Sep 2021 14:53:03 GMT

Applies to

• Staff client

Answer

This is a result of the system recognizing that a hold request has been placed, but the customer has not yet received a notification. If the hold report is captured during this brief window of time between when the item was checked in and when the notification was sent, the patron email address will show on the report.